President's Perception. . .

So, how do I start my first column as President? I've been thinking about this for a while now, and what I keep coming back to is gratitude. So I'm starting my column the same way that we as Jews start every day –

מִוֹדֵה אֲנִי Modeh Ani, an expression of thanks.

I am incredibly grateful for the opportunity to serve this congregation as President. This shul has given me so much over the years, and I am honored to be able to give at least a little bit back in my new role. I have exactly ONE blood relative in Dallas - a cousin. Besides her family, my husband and my father-in-law, I have no family here. Or more correctly, I have no relatives here. Because as many of you have heard me say, Anshai Torah is my family by choice. The love I feel for and from this congregation is tremendous, and my greatest wish is for each and every member to feel exactly the same way.

I am grateful to Rabbi Weinberg, who kept after me as a new bride, encouraging me to get involved in the shul (I didn't, for a good 15 years after he first asked, but hey, I got there!). His compassion, perseverance and vision are a blessing to all of us, and made a huge difference in my eventual participation.

I am grateful to our dear Shabbat group, who, though already bursting at the seams, welcomed Mark and me with open arms (after having to tug a little bit at first to get us involved). These wonderful friends, like the entire Anshai community, are so warm and welcoming to everyone, and represent the spirit that so many of our guests comment on when they visit Anshai Torah. Our people are our greatest asset, and I am grateful for the wonderful people who make Anshai Torah our loving home.

I am grateful for our amazing staff! As I have often said, they are the Maccabees of our shul. Though small in number, they accomplish so much, keeping Anshai not just running, but humming! Our staff has passion for the place – a beautiful quality. Each of our staff cares deeply about the wellbeing of Anshai Torah, and that pride in our home makes not just our building but our community shine.

I am truly, truly grateful for our volunteers! There is no way we could possibly afford to pay you for what you do for Anshai Torah! The thousands of hours that our volunteers donate year in and year out help us to grow and flourish. We accomplish additional programming, better fundraising, more spirited services, more fun, more beautiful surroundings, more care for our congregants in need of a meal or a visit, faster mailings, and a whole host of other benefits that many of you may never see, thanks to the generous spirit and can-do attitude of our volunteers!

And while it is impossible to single out any one volunteer, I would like to express my gratitude to a couple of remarkable people. First, I am grateful to Debbie Katz, who has now officially ended her tenure on our board of directors. Debbie, in addition to being a wealth of knowledge about all things Anshai Torah, has a wealth of patience, kindness, empathy and determination. I am already missing Debbie's wisdom in our meetings, but, as we would expect of her, she is only a phone call away, and is always ready to help. And last, but certainly not least, I am grateful to Andy Cohen. Andy has led this congregation with strength and compassion. He has handled challenges with a calm and reasoned approach, and has helped lead us to one of our best fiscal years in recent memory. I am grateful that Andy is still right by my side, making sure I'm doing everything I need to be doing!

So, how do I end my first column as President? By asking each of you to share your gratitude for Anshai Torah! I would love to hear from you – to know why you are grateful, and how Anshai Torah has made an impact on you. Nothing brings me more joy than being able to celebrate our successes, and I look forward to doing that with all of you over these next months! I am grateful to be with you all on this wonderful journey.

B'shalom,

Michelle

Sisterhood. . .schmooze and news

CAT Sisterhood is gearing up for another exciting year of education and socializing. Sisterhood is open to ALL women of Anshai Torah interested in meeting new friends or gathering with old ones. This year we will be focusing on perpetuating the Jewish home through fun and educational projects as well as performing numerous mitzvah for the Dallas community. Annual dues are $36 and include your membership to the Women's League of Conservative Judaism. If you are interested in joining Sisterhood or want to help with an event, please feel free to contact our co-Presidents, Kathryn Kaplan (kathrynskaplan@yahoo.com) or Sherie Wigder (wigder@sbcglobal.net).

Twisted Sister Paid-Up Membership Event

Mark your calendars for Thursday, September 6, 7 p.m. We will be gathering at the shul as the Challah Baking All-Stars teach you "EVERYTHING YOU KNEAD TO KNOW" about making Challah. There will be demonstrations from all-star Sisterhood members on how to make the dough, braid a Shabbat Challah, and braid a round Challah. Challah experts will enjoy learning more complicated braids and stuffed Challah. Get ready to get your hands floury and your taste buds working. No Dough Necessary, as this is free to Sisterhood members. Please RSVP by August 20 to Shawn Frank, Membership Co-Vice President, shawn.frank1@yahoo.com. Not a member yet? You can join at the event.

Also get ready for some fun times with the CAT Sisters of the Hood. Fall programming events include: October 4 – Sisterhood in the Sukkah and the Gary Rosenthal Glass Ribbon Project benefitting Sharsheret

Join Sisterhood for a brief service in the Sukkah followed by participation in the Gary Rosenthal Glass Ribbon Project. The Glass Ribbon Project is a free community art project, where people can come together to make beautiful hand-made, fused-glass mosaic pieces of Judaica art in honor of a loved one who has or is currently fighting cancer. Participants can then purchase their created masterpiece or send them back to Gary for him to sell in his Glass Ribbon line. Pieces include items like candlesticks, dreidels, or mezuzahs. A percent of all purchases from the Glass Ribbon line support Sharsheret, a non-profit organization that supports young Jewish women living with breast or ovarian cancer. Find more information at <http://www.collectgaryrosenthal.com>. We will be ordering our glass mosaic kits soon, so be thinking about what type of piece you might want to create.

November 4 - Crockpot Shabbat

Even working women and manic moms can create a lovely Shabbat dinner (or any family dinner!) with the help of a slow cooker! Come sample some recipes and learn how to simplify the dinner hour at your home.

December 2 – I Made It Out of Clay

Come create your own painted ceramic Judaica item or just-for-fun piece for yourself or a Chanukah gift! A great therapeutic and social evening for ladies to relax and paint.

B'nai Mitzvah . . . called to the Torah

Ashley Grossman
Page Lemont
Jake Davidoff

Ashley Nicole Grossman will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Shabbat, August 18, 2012.

Ashley is the daughter of Kimberly and David Grossman and the older sister of Joshua. She is the granddaughter of Fred and Janice Grossman and Alan and Marcia Weiss.

Ashley is an honor student at Parkhill Junior High in Dallas. When not studying, Ashley is passionate about court sports. She plays club volleyball and year-round select basketball.

In addition to her extra-curricular activities Ashley, has a tremendous dedication to charity. Whether donating birthday presents to the Collin county child advocacy center or collecting food and clothing for Jewish Family Services, Ashley is always thinking of others. For her mitzvah project, Ashley donated two weeks volunteering with the Jewish Community Center on their camp programs.

Ashley and her family would like to give a special thanks to Rabbi Weinberg and Bruce Feldman for all their guidance and support in helping her prepare for this milestone. We especially appreciate Bruce's flexibility, incredible patience and never-ending encouragement.

We are proud of Ashley's hard work and dedication and look forward to celebrating this wonderful weekend with family, friends, and members of the congregation.

Page Rebekah Lemont will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Shabbat, August 25, 2012 / 7 Elul 5772. Page is the daughter of Brenda Lemont and Martin Lemont. She is the granddaughter of Minnette Zak Page of Lawton, OK and Marilyn Lemont of Frisco, TX.

Page will be an 8th grade student at Wilson Middle School in Plano, where she is a member of AVID. She is also in the Advanced and Pops Orchestra playing the viola. She enjoys pumping up the student body's spirit at pep rallies as the school mascot.

Outside of school Page enjoys playing the piano and water volleyball. This summer was her eleventh year to participate at Camp Chai and she's looking forward to being a CIT next summer. Page loves OU football and enjoys volunteering at the Legacy Nursing Home.

Our family would like to thank Rabbi Stefan Weinberg, Bob Westle and Jack Molad for all of their tutoring, encouragement, guidance and patience with our unusual family schedule.

Additionally, we would like to extend a special thanks to Rabbi Weinberg for going above and beyond, for without his support, this Bat Mitzvah would not have been possible.

We are extremely proud of Page and her commitment to completing this important milestone with her Anshai family and friends.

Jake Linton Davidoff will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Shabbat, September 1, 2012. Jake is the son of Nicole and Scott Davidoff and the brother of Evan. He is the grandson of Anne and Ronnie Davidoff of Plano, Denise and Larry Pollis of Plano, and Joye and Gary Stegall of Red Oak. Jake is the great-grandson of Sadie Davidoff and Frank Singer both of Dallas.

Jake is a 7th grade honor roll student currently attending Robinson Middle School in Plano. At RMS, he performs in the 7th grade choir and plays on the 7th grade football team. Outside of school, Jake pitches for his PBA baseball team, the Wolves. He is also a yellow belt in Tae Kwon Do. Jake spends his remaining free time cooking and trying out recipes in anticipation of his goal of being a chef one day. Jake enjoys watching baseball, football, and basketball while cheering on the Texas Rangers, Dallas Cowboys, and Dallas Mavericks.

For his mitzvah project, Jake made food baskets for patients at the Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders Infusion Rooms at Children's Hospital. This mitzvah project was completed in memory of Ryan Goldblatt, Jake's cousin who died from pediatric brain cancer.

We would like to thank Rabbi Weinberg, Bob Westle, and Bruce Feldman for helping Jake prepare for his special day.

We are very proud of Jake and his accomplishments. We look forward to celebrating this simcha with our family, friends, and the congregation.

Preschool. . . a great beginning

Welcome Back to School !!

Every year as we prepare for the upcoming school year, we have the opportunity to reflect on our break from the busy school year and enjoy summer. For some, summer is all about relaxation, for many it's about camp and the exploration of the outdoors and for others it's about traveling to far-away places.

This summer, I had the opportunity to visit New York City as a participant in the first cohort of The Jewish Early Childhood Education Leadership Institute (JECLEI). Collaborating with the other 15 Early Childhood Educators and our mentors on the campus of both The Jewish Theological Seminary (JTS) and Bank Street College was a very powerful experience. Our two weeks together focused on building community, exploring text study and developing our skills as leaders in the field of Early Childhood Education. My time spent at JTS was not only filled with learning but with a deep sense of spiritual awe as I thought about the many Conservative Rabbis that have studied there.

As we begin this new school year together, I look forward to sharing this incredible experience with all of you, and can't wait to learn all about your summer memories too!

Please join me for our first TOT SHABBAT on Friday, August 24, 6:30 p.m. Plan to stay for our Annual Shabbat Under the Stars Dinner!

Ms. Alyse
